Strictly Necessary LStrictly necessary cookies help make a website navigable by enabling basic functions such as page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. Without these cookies, the website would not be able to function properly. Functional Functional cookies store information that may change the way the website looks or works. For example, your preferred language or region. Statistical Statistical cookies help the site owner understand how visitors interact with the website by collecting and reporting information. Strictly Necessary Functional Statistical What is a cookie ? A cookie is a small data file saved on your computer, tablet or smartphone. The cookie is not a program that may contain malware or viruses. Use of cookies by the website Some cookies are used to ensure the essential functions of the website. Cookies also help us understand why you visit a website. This enables us to continually optimize and target the website to meet your needs and interests. Cookies remember certain elements such as items added to the basket, the fact that you have already visited the website, a previous connection or the language and currency you wish to use on the website. We also use cookies to tailor our advertisements to your preferences on other websites. Generally, we use cookies as part of our service in order to present you with content that is as relevant as possible. Find out which specific services save cookies and why this is done under different categories : How long are cookies stored ? The storage period of cookies saved on your devices and browsers varies. The lifetime of a cookie is calculated taking into account your last visit to the website. When the lifetime of a cookie comes to an end, the cookie is automatically deleted. How to refuse or delete cookies ? You can refuse all cookies and/or third-party cookies at any time by modifying your browser settings on your computer, tablet or smartphone. The location of these settings depends on the browser you are using. However, you should be aware that if you reject all cookies and/or third-party cookies, certain services and functions can no longer be provided on the website (because these are based on the use of cookies). You can opt out of Google Analytics cookies here. How to delete cookies ? Previously accepted cookies are easy to delete. The removal procedure depends on the browser (Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc.) and device you are using (smartphone, tablet, PC, Mac).This is usually found in Settings « Security and Privacy. However, this varies from browser to browser. Indicate the device/browser you are using (click on the corresponding link): Modification of consent You can change your consent by deleting cookies from your browser. Reminder: if you use several browsers, you must delete the cookies used on each of them. Do you have any other questions ?
